

Court Information Release

United States District Court
Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division
219 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois 60604

Representing Prisoners in Civil Rights Litigation: Free Remote Seminars for Attorneys

On February 15, 2023, the Court will host a remote continuing legal education seminar, "Introduction to Prisoner Civil Rights Litigation," via Zoom. A follow up seminar "Representing Prisoners in Medical Cases" will be held remotely on March 1, 2023, via Zoom.

Lawyers recently recruited by the Court to represent a prisoner and those interested in accepting appointments are strongly encouraged to virtually attend these seminars. Please forward this announcement to everyone in your firm and invite your associates, paralegals, and/or legal assistants.

These free seminars will be held from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., and 3.0 hours of MCLE credit has been requested (including 0.5 hours for professionalism) for each participant per seminar.

The facilitator for this program is an attorney very experienced in prisoner civil rights litigation, Alan Mills, Executive Director of Uptown People's Law Center.

To register, e-mail registration@uplcchicago.org with (1) the seminar(s) you wish to attend, (2) your ARDC number as it appears on the Illinois Supreme Court rolls, if you are seeking CLE credit, and (3) your current e-mail address. Mr. Mills will confirm your registration and email you the Zoom link(s) and materials.

If you have any questions, please contact attorney_questions_ilnd@ilnd.uscourts.gov

##